Cheaper counterfeit notes in circulation

LUCKNOW. A team of Anti-Terrorist Squad (ATS) of Uttar Pradesh police along with ATS team from Mumbai, in a joint operation here, arrested one person wanted in a case of supplying counterfeit currency. The currency notes recovered from Arif on Saturday were all of Rs 100 denomination and of the same series which was seized by Mumbai ATS earlier. During the initial interrogation, police said that Arif had come to Mumbai in 2001 and worked in Malad area. It was revealed that he met Matlub and got involved in the business of counterfeit currency. Arif was a senior official in the ATS, Arif was...

ARE YOU AFFECTED BY FAKE CURRENCY?

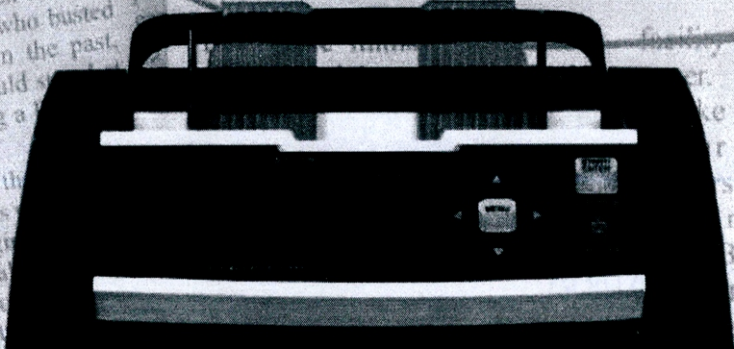

Cheaper counterfeit notes in circulation

Mateen Hafeez, TNN

MUMBAI: The making of fake notes is getting more economical but that is also telling on their quality. Investigations into the latest fake currency bust in Mumbai have revealed it takes only Rs 20 to churn out a fake Rs-100 note. This is less than half the cost that making the fakes recovered in the past entailed. Senior police officials, who busted fake-currency rackets in the past, told TOI fraudsters would spend at least Rs 450 on making a fake.

Rs 1,000 denomination, of high quality. The case was handed over to the National Investigating Agency (NIA) after notes of the same series were found in Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, Chhattisgarh and Orissa. He said the quality of the paper used to manufacture them is also of poor quality. Those arrested were carriers and the notes were made in India only," said ATS chief KPRaghuvanshi. "The manufacturers were made in India here from...

ATS arrests one with counterfeit currency

FOLLA Launches

The world's most advanced counterfeit currency detection machine in india.

But all this is telling on the quality of the fakes. The old fakes were 95% close to the original notes. But the new fakes are only one-fifth of the original quality. Under the dispensation of the bank, the withdrawal slip is the only document that banks take into account. If a bank refuses to take cognisance of the complaint, it must be reported to the nearest police station. The ATS earlier, During the initial inter...
